BAPTISM

Last Sunday we celebrated the Baptism of Lily Lassey. We congratulate her family and pray that they help her grow to understand and live the gift God offered her last Sunday.

FRIDAY NIGHT MOVIE AT OLA

Join us for Molokai: The Story of Father Damien (PG) on Friday, July 28th at 6:30 pm in the Rieger Hall with free popcorn and drinks. When Fr. Damien de Veuster was born in Belgium in 1840, few people had any firsthand knowledge of leprosy – Hansen’s disease. By the time he died at the age of 49, people all over the world knew about the disease because of him. They knew that human compassion could soften the ravages of this disease. Come see the story of this amazing and heroic saint at our next Friday Night Movie.

WHAT GETS CHANGED AT MASS?

A few years ago at a parish in Cleveland, some Catholics were interviewed about going to Mass. One of the questions was: “At Mass, when we pray and sing, when the priest stands at the altar and we pray over the bread and wine, when we come to holy communion, what gets changed?”

One middle-aged man named Sam answered quick as a wink and spoke straight from his heart: “What gets changed? Sam! Sam gets changed.”

Now that man, whether he realized it or not, knew the church’s theology deep down in his being. He had experience—not just book learning—of the church’s theology of the Eucharist.

At our baptism, we put on Christ. We died, we renounced, we turned our backs on whole ways of life. If we were baptized as infants, then our parents meant us to enter on such a Catholic life. At baptism, whether as an infant or an adult, the people already baptized took us into a home. And in that home we do the things that Catholics do, we try to live with others the way the gospels and our saints show us. We try to be one of those to whom the Lord will say: “I was hungry and you fed me, thirsty and you gave me a drink, in prison and you visited me.”

Baptism got us into this house, this Catholic house. Sunday Eucharist trains us in the life and language and loving deeds of Catholics. It gets us around that table where from the first generation of Christians we’ve been gathered to give God thanks over bread and wine. Doing that again and again changed Sam. Little by little, it changes us all. The most sacred mystery of the Eucharist is that this bread and wine become for us the body and blood of Christ. The most sacred mystery of the Eucharist is that we, slackers and sinners all, become the body and blood of Christ. So what gets changed? Sam gets changed. We all get changed!

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

“The kingdom of heaven may be likened to a man who sowed good seed in his field...He who sows good seed is the Son of Man, the field is the world, the good seed, the children of the kingdom.” (Matthew 13:24, 37-38) As children of God, we are all “good seeds,” blessed by God with the potential to accomplish much good in the world. We fulfill God’s plan when we share our talents and our financial gifts to help build God’s kingdom on earth. Through our stewardship we sow “good seeds” on earth to ultimately help each other get to Heaven!

FR. MONROE ON VACATION

The pastor is away on vacation until Saturday afternoon, July 29th. The Office Director will be available from 8:00 am to 4:00 pm Monday through Friday. Fr. Dougherty will preside at all Lord’s Day and weekday Masses this week. Sr. Marie will work with families to prepare any funerals that may be scheduled and Fr. Dennis O’Brien will preside at any funerals this week.

TAKE ME OUT TO THE BALLGAME

Fenway too expensive? Consider an evening watching the Paw Sox play the Columbus Clippers (minor league equivalent of the Cleveland Indians) at McCoy Stadium – no matter where seats are located, you get a great view of the game. Catholic Night at the Paw Sox will take place on August 12th at 6:15 pm. Tickets are $15 and include general admission ticket, $5.00 free ballpark credit, $5.00 donation to our parish, Pre-Game recognition of each parish group and post-game fireworks show. This offers a fun and affordable family outing! Contact Darleen Farland at dfarlandola@gmail.com or 508-791-0951, ext. 18.
